

Lake Norman Christian School Announces Headmaster Colonel David E. Walters

Committed to excellence in all things, Lake Norman Christian School (LKNC) is pleased to announce that Lieutenant Colonel (USA, Rtd.) Dave Walters has joined the school as Headmaster and Upper School Principal.

Colonel Walters will begin serving in the role as the school's Headmaster effective July 22nd. In addition to his Headmaster responsibilities, Walters will lead as Principal of LKNC's quickly growing Middle and High School.

Dave Walters was born August 30, 1949, in Fernandina Beach, Florida. He received an Associates of Arts Degree from Montreat-Anderson College, then a two year school, in 1969 and went on to earn his Bachelor of Science degree from Florida State University. As a Distinguished Military Graduate, he was commissioned a second lieutenant in the United States Army in 1971.

Lieutenant Colonel Walters retired from the Army after a 22-year career which included increasing leadership and management positions, some of which included: Platoon Leader, 82nd Airborne; Troop Commander, 3rd Squadron, 7th Cavalry; Assistant Professor of Military Science at Wake Forest University; Chief of Resource Management and Chief Combat Training Centers Division, Training and Doctrine Command; Battalion Operations and Executive Officer, 3d Battalion, 64th armor; and Commander of United States Army Recruiting Battalion, Jacksonville, FL.

He received a Master's Degree from Central Michigan University in 1987, and is a graduate of the United States Army Command and General Staff College. Walters completed his Doctoral course work at Capella University. His personal awards and decorations include the Legion of Merit, numerous Meritorious Service Medals and Army Commendation Medals.

Upon his retirement from the Army, Colonel Walters returned to Montreat College to become the Director of Admissions. While at Montreat College, he additionally served as Vice President for Adult Studies and Corporate Services, Associate Professor of Business, and Chairperson of the Business and Computer Information Systems Department. For many years he has been known as "the Voice of the Cavaliers" thanks to his unrivaled and enthusiastic announcing at Montreat Cavalier home sporting events.

Dave is married to the former Jamie Davey of Miami, Florida. They have two grown sons, two daughters-in-love, and two grandchildren.

Lake Norman Christian is an independent, non-denominational Christian school offering grades K-9 for the upcoming 2009-2010 school year. Additionally, the school plans to add one grade each year, culminating with full K-12 offerings by 2012.
